

How do I become a member of the D.D. Council?

The Board of Directors of the Alameda County Developmental Disabilities Council invites all persons interested in the welfare of people with developmental disabilities and who reside and/or work in Alameda County to sign up for our general membership. There are no membership fees.

General members receive the DD Dateline Newsletter, special notices, and the minutes of each Board meeting. General membership is a great way to keep up with a wide range of topics that are important to us, such as community resources, pending legislation and Regional Center affairs. Members are always welcome to attend monthly Board of Directors meetings, which always include one or more invited speakers on special topics. Many members also attend the annual dinner each June, at which time they elect new officers and directors.

If you wish to become a general member of the Council, please fill out and return the membership form below. If your agency is the current addressee, please appoint one or more individuals who live and/or work in Alameda County as voting general members, using the form below. If you do not wish to become a general member or do not qualify please check "Newsletter only" and return the completed form. We hope you will join us in supporting the work of the Alameda County Developmental Disabilities Council.
