

Public Health 101

Module III: Undoing Racism

Developed by:

Alameda County Public Health Department -
Community Assessment Planning & Education Unit
Mia Luluquisen & Katherine Schaff

We encourage the reproduction of this material, but ask that you credit Alameda County Public Health Department

(www.acphd.org)

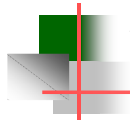

Video 1 & 2—Partner Discussion Directions

- Each person take 2 minutes to answer the 1st question.
- Practice active listening—while one person talks for 2 minutes, listen without interrupting.
- After each person has shared their thoughts on the 1st question, then discuss the 2nd and 3rd question.

GIVE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST, THEN HAVE PEOPLE PARTNER UP.

If you ask them to partner up first, too many people are moving and people can't hear the instructions.

Video 1 & 2—Partner Discussion

- 1) What images or scenes from the videos really stood out to you? (Each person has 2 minutes)
- 2) What surprised you?
- 3) What concerned you?

Video 3—Partner Discussion Directions

- Each person take 2 minutes to answer the 1st question.
- Practice active listening—while one person talks for 2 minutes, listen without interrupting.
- After each person has shared their thoughts on the 1st question, then discuss the 2nd and 3rd question.

GIVE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST, THEN HAVE PEOPLE PARTNER UP.

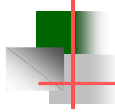

If you ask them to partner up first, too many people are moving and people can't hear the instructions.

Video 3—Partner Discussion

- 1) What images or scenes from the videos really stood out to you? (Each person has 2 minutes)
- 2) What surprised you?
- 3) What concerned you?

Contact Information

Community Assessment Planning and Education/Evaluation
1000 Broadway, Suite 500
Oakland, CA 94607
510-267-8020

We encourage the reproduction of this material, but ask that you credit the Alameda County Public Health Department (www.acphd.org)

