In Module IV to PH101, staff will discuss:
- historical and current policies that lead to social and health inequities
- the link between social inequities and health inequities
- current health inequities
- what Alameda County Public Health Department is doing to address social and health inequities